

MUNSON AND MAMARA

123 and 125 MAIN STREET.

Many new arrivals this week in all departments. Our stock presents the largest and the best selections of Dry Goods in Wichita. No intelligent seeker for reliable information on fashions or fashionable fabrics or prudent buyer, either in the realms of fancy or staple dry goods can afford to pass our house, a house that with pure business merit alone has won its way to the front—employing in the different departments, including the Dress Making Department not less than 44 employees, and during the busy season many more than that number. No business house, however faithful and intelligent the employees, can hope to attain perfection, but we shall put forth strenuous efforts with a very high idea.

This week only, 6 pieces strip black velvet—rich handsome goods—sold at $1.75 per yard, everywhere at $1.25.

8 pieces colored Brocade Silk Velvets, sold at $2.50 per yard, at $1.48 per yard.

We sold our last week all those Childrens Cloaks we advertised, now we have another lot. They are better than those last week, very much better and are equally as cheap for the quality—all sizes 4 to 10 years at $1.25 each.

Seal Plush Sackies Monday only and Tuesday a few real Seal Plush Sackies, 40 inches long 4 seal loops—good quilted lining. These sackies are good, although we will sell them at cheap, they are not the short nap Seal Plush, usually sold at this price. We want you to see them, we don't think they will last long, we affirm without fear of successful contradiction, that no such price was ever made on a good Seal Plush Sackie before, $18.50.

Novelties in Braids for Dress Trimmings.

Novelties in Hair Ornaments, Hand Bags.

Plain Dress fabrics are extra good this season. We have all the new shades from 60cts to $3.00 per yard. We cordially invite you to look these goods over. We are also placing on our counters every few days new bargains in Dress Goods, they are constantly coming and are constantly going—sometimes they are just what you want and save you considerable on a dress.

One case of Childrens Vests and Pants, sizes 16 to 28—all at the uniform price of 25cts each.

One case of Ladies Vests and Pants, all sizes, usually sold at 75cts this lot at 50cts, each.

One case of Scarlet, all wool, good quality, Ladies Vests and Pants usually sold at $1.00 at 75cts.

A part of case left of those plain Dress Plankies 35 inches wide at 29cts a yard.

Butterflies Paper Fashions for Fall and Winter.

MUNSON AND MAMARA

WICHITA CRACKER COMPANY.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

FINE CRACKERS AND PURE CANDIES.

138 and 140 NORTH FOURTH AVENUE.

YIKE'S ADDITION TO WICHITA

A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT!

This beautiful tract of ground, comprising 500 choice lots, lies upon the West Side, joining Glendale upon the south and extends from Seneca street to Arkansas river. The extensive shoe and leather works are just beyond this addition. These lots are wholly within the charmed circle marked by the mile and one-half line over ten minutes walk from Douglas avenue, and the Princess Motor Line on two sides. Prices lower and terms better than any property of equal value in the city. Enquire of

FRANK SIGER, ON THE PREMISES, OR
TUCKER & JACKSON, 228 E Douglas Ave.

Areher Electric Manufacturing Co.

No. 321 West Douglas Ave.

CAPITAL 60,000.00 DOLLARS.

N. A. ENGLISH, Pres. J. O. DAVIDSON, Treas. E. A. HUTCHINS, Sec.

Manufacturers of and dealers in Batteries and Instruments, Electric Motors, Electric Bells, Annunciators, speaking tubes, physicians batteries and instruments. Hotels and private residences furnished with electric bells or speaking tubes. A full line of electric supplies. Repairing of every description. Nickel and silver plating. First-class work in every department at lowest possible rates. Get our prices before giving out your work.

NEW YEAR'S GIFT!

On January 1st we propose to give some Lucky Person

A Lady's Fine Loop Front Phaeton
VALUED AT $225.

We believe that since January 1st we have sold as many Buggies, Carriages, &c., as any two houses in Kansas, and propose to round up the year with a valuable present to some one of our customers. We have great faith in our city and expect to keep to the front with the Finest Line of Spring Work in the State. We have just received a shipment of fine Studebaker, Newton and Favorite work, also a stock of B Grade work, bought lower than ever before which we can and will sell lower than Kansas City prices.

Do you intend buying a Carriage, Surrey, Phaeton, Buggy or any kind of a wagon? If so we will make it to your interest to buy of us. We value your patronage and warrant every job we sell. Come get a new buggy and secure a chance for the finest present ever given to the people of Wichita. Remember the place,

BEACON BLOCK, 123 NORTH MARKET STREET.

Alexander - & - Rahn.

CLEVELAND'S LARK.

After the End of Festivity at Milwaukee the Presidential Party

Embark for Madison, Wis., Where They Will Take a Short Rest.

Mrs. Cleveland Evidently Enjoys the Trip Equal With the President.

And Looks Bright and Fresh Despite the Continued Round of Receptions She Has Undergone.

The President Pays a Glowing Tribute to the Enthusiastic Citizens of Wisconsin's Capital.

MILWAUKEE'S ENTHUSIASM.

The Second Day of the President's Visit—The Program.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 7.—The day opened bright and beautiful after a regular down-pouring rain during the night, and everything tended to make the few remaining hours of the president's stay in Milwaukee of a most pleasant nature.

At 8:30 a. m. carriages containing the presidential party and reception committee left the Plankinton house and proceeded to the Soldiers' Home by way of Grand avenue and the Blue Mound road.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

private buildings. I am already prepared to venture the assertion, based on my slight observation, that this is the home of a kindly and hospitable people. The influence on a community of such a university as here, is greater than is at first glance appreciated. It fosters a certain refinement and cultivation which radiate to all the homes within its sphere, thus enhancing their value as nurseries of steady and intelligent citizens. I expect to heartily enjoy my stay here and to always remember with pleasure the recollections of your city and its inhabitants.

On the conclusion of the speech making, the president and his party moved to the capitol building, the doors of which were closed behind them for a few minutes. During this time the members of the reception committee and their wives were presented to the president and Mrs. Cleveland in the office of Governor Rusk. The crowd outside had, in the meanwhile, been informed that its only chance to meet the president this afternoon lay in the possibility of organization of some kind, and while the suggestion was not acted upon unanimously, a minority of the multitude sought places in line. The doors were then opened and for about two hours the people poured in. This town has a population of only 12,000 or 14,000, but the surrounding country had sent its thousands, and the reception lacked for nothing in the way of numbers. When the reception ended, Mrs. Cleveland went at once to the residence of Post Master General Vilas, where she spent the balance of the afternoon quietly. The president was escorted by Governor Rusk and Col. Vilas to the county fair grounds, where the farmers and exhibitors had a second opportunity to see him, and after a short delay he, too, went to the Vilas mansion.

This evening Col. and Mrs. Vilas gave a dinner to the president. It was a quiet affair of twelve or fifteen covers. Among the guests were Governor and Mrs. Rusk, Chief Justice Cole and Mayor Conklin and wife of this city.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

The town is gorgeously arrayed. Wherever room could be found upon which to stick a bit of color it has been utilized, even the telegraph poles being wound with ribbons and bands of red, white and blue. Tonight the bands are playing, troops are marching and the horns are tooting in the business streets of the town, but quiet reigns in the more secluded portions where the president is domiciled.

WIRE CULLINGS

The Knights of Labor Still in Session at Minneapolis, Minn.

The Reason Why Gov. Oglesby of Illinois Remained Away From Chicago on the Occasion of President Cleveland's Late Reception There.

Governor Thayer of Nebraska Declines to Give Up a Murderer—Hanging at Fort Smith, Ark.

Latest News From Over the Ocean—Sporting Notes—Yellow Jack at Tampa, Fla.—Other Notes.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

A Big Fight to be Made Over the New Constitution—Secretary Lettichman's Report.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 7.—J. P. McGaughey, secretary of the co-operative board of the Knights of Labor, said this morning that the result of the vote in the case of J. R. Buchanan, the rejected delegate from District Assembly No. 89, of Denver, as given by the latter, was false, and that the vote was unanimously against Buchanan.

It is learned that a big fight will be made in the convention over the new constitution is not wholly without foundation. A prominent eastern Knight says: "Disaffection over this matter is very much stronger than administration men have any idea of. The 'antis' would have to pull a two-thirds vote to win. The principal point of opposition among the 'antis' seems to be that they do not like the idea of the general officers holding office for a two years' term. They also make claim that at least two of the present general officers, Secretary Lettichman and Treasurer Turner are wholly incompetent. Administration delegates asked in regard to the matter, state emphatically that the charges of incompetency made against Turner and Lettichman are entirely without foundation. It is quite evident that the two factions in the convention fear each other. The fact that lengthy secret caucuses are held nightly goes a long way to sustain this belief.

General Secretary Lettichman presented his report today, which was voluminous. Following is a synopsis. The number of members reported in good standing at the last session of the general assembly was 702,942 and the number of members in arrears 29,753, making a membership of 732,677.

A tremendous growth in the early part of 1887 will be remembered. People came into the order by hundreds of thousands, and a suspension of initiation for forty days was ordered. After the forty days had expired the rush again commenced, and the result was a mass of material that proved itself to be a weakness rather than a strength.

For six months following the session of the general assembly at Richmond, the papers of the country have been filled continually with assaults on the order and on the general officers, and everything possible was done to discredit the order. Yet, in spite of all opposition, the total number in good standing July 1st was 485,000, and to this nearly 50,000 new names have been added to date.

The receipts for the fiscal year ending July 1st, are shown to be $388,731, giving with balances on hand, a grand total of $508,647.

The consideration of the question of establishing a co-operative savings association was recommended, also that state assemblies be made compulsory.

The general assembly at Richmond, after adopting certain amendments to the constitution, referred the balance of the reports to the committee of law, together with such other changes as have been presented to the general assembly to a special committee of revision. It was ordered that this committee, in conjunction with the general executive board, should prepare a revision of the constitution and submit the same to a vote of the local assemblies of the order.

The result of the deliberations of this committee on revision was submitted to local assemblies as provided for under a vote by which the committee was appointed. All assemblies were requested to vote upon the constitution. Returns from local assemblies showed that 2,363 local assemblies voted yes on the first proposition and 1,067 voted no. That 2,363 local assemblies voted yes on the second proposition and 963 voted no.

Secretary Lettichman, in concluding, said his office had been anything but a bed of roses and that the enemies among the order had persecuted him.

The general secretary makes a number of recommendations which may be summarized as follows: That the subject of establishing a co-operative savings association be considered by the committee on the state of the order and, if it is deemed advisable, the proper authority be given to secure an act of incorporation for the organization and management of such an institution. The primary object of this will be to establish a home for the order in every town or city where the order exists. Nothing will give such permanence to an organization as the fulfillment of this plan. Branches may be established in each state and gradually the power of the order can be brought to bear on the various divisions of co-operative production, distribution, consumption and saving; that the general secretary have entire control of his office force; that state assemblies be made compulsory.

The proper committee consider the demand for some sort of regalia for members of the order and badges to be worn at funerals; that there be legislation which will make more stringent the prohibition of the use of the name of the order or any of its symbols for business purposes.

On this point the secretary says: "I think the general assembly would be justified in passing a law placing an effectual boycott on every article upon which the initials of the order or any of its symbols were used without the sanction of the general executive board."

There are a number of minor recommendations covering proposed changes in the order's work, which are of no interest to the general public, but this is worthy of note: "A great deal of complaint has been made to the general office in relation to embezzlement of funds by local officers who subsequently absconded, and thus cannot be notified of the pending charges. I recommend that it be stated in the constitution that a notice of trial sent to the last known address of the absconder shall be considered a legal summons, and that if the absconder fails to appear at the time of trial, either in person or by counsel, the trial may legally proceed in his absence the same as though he were present."

Adjourning till tomorrow.

The Reason Why.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—There was inquiry about the state capital today as to the reason why Governor Oglesby remained away from Chicago on the occasion of the president's visit there. He had a pressing invitation to go. It seems, however, that when the Springfield authorities were preparing their invitation to the president to come here the mayor and others called on the governor and asked him to join the invitation. The governor replied that in his position he did not think he could with propriety join in the citizens' invitation to Springfield any more than to any other city in the state, but he could write the president, and would cheerfully do so, saying he had learned the municipal authorities at the state capital were sending him an invitation to come here, and if he decided to come—and it was hoped he would—the governor and all the state officers would unite in the general endeavor to make his stay here an agreeable and pleasant one. This was written on behalf of the state government and sent entirely separate from the invitation of the mayor, the council and the citizens.

The president replied to the mayor's invitation and referred to the action of the council and citizens, but neither mentioned the governor's letter nor replied to it separately. This explains why the governor has not personally joined in the welcome of the president upon the soil of Illinois.

Failed to Get Their Man.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 7.—September 15 four white men employed at the stove factory near Brunswick, Tenn., in this county, arrested Jim Easter, a negro, on some slight pretext, and after binding his hands carried him into a canebrake, shot him to death, tied a sack of mud around his neck and threw his body into Hatchie river, where it was discovered about three days afterward. W. P. Coffman, one of the men, was arrested at Brunswick, but the three others fled.

Al McMahon, one of the murderers, went to Ord, Neb., where he was arrested by the sheriff of that county and placed in jail. Two deputy sheriffs, armed with a requisition from Governor Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, to Governor J. Thayer of Nebraska, left ten days ago to bring the fugitive back. They returned to Memphis this morning empty-handed. Governor Thayer having refused to recognize the requisition of Tennessee's governor. He made no excuse, simply saying that he declined to issue a warrant of extradition.

This has created much indignation here. Attorney General George B. Peters and other leading attorneys have so far been unable to find a parallel case in the books. An evening paper says, editorially, this afternoon: "The action of Nebraska's governor is deserving of the severest censure. A criminal, to flee from Tennessee, need not cross the line of Canada. Nebraska offers a safer retreat, and the climate is more invigorating."

Murderers Hanged.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 7.—Silas Hampton and Zea Green were hung today in the United States jail yard for murder. Both men faced their fate with great coolness and staid game. Their necks were broken by the fall. Both confessed their crimes and died penitent. The crime for which Green was hung was the murder of a man named William Lloyd on the night of December 9, 1884, and gave him the reason that there were too many white men in the nation. This is the fourth man hung by the present hangman.

OVER THE OCEAN.

England.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—John Bright, in a letter to Ellis, of the Scotch Unionist, says: "Parnell talks at Avondale, admitting the truth he has created, while the people are in deep rebellion, and keeping the pot boiling in three provinces of Ireland. His right hand claps Gladstone's on this side of the Atlantic, his other giving fraternal to the gang in New York, by whom the outrages and murders are being committed which collect funds from which half the Irish party receives pay to insult the speaker of the house of commons, and to make unlawful legislation impossible. Gladstone says that future Irish legislation must satisfy Ireland, meaning Parnell, so the coming Gladstone will must run on the lines of leaders paid to play at rebellion and desert parliament."

Ireland.

DUBLIN, Oct. 7.—The hearing in the case of Mr. William O'Brien, who was summoned for publishing accounts of the meeting of the suppressed branches of the National League in the United States, has been adjourned pending the decision of the appeal to the superior court by Mr. O'Brien in the case against Lord Mayor Sullivan, who was summoned for same offense.

Yellow Jack at Tampa, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 7.—A special from Tampa to the Times, dated at 10 o'clock this morning, says: Physicians here this morning pronounced the existence of yellow fever in this city. There are only two cases, both of which are of a mild type. There has been but one death so far. People are panic stricken, and the city being deserted, the yellow fever will likely become epidemic for several days, if at all. There is but little cause for alarm, as the weather now is most favorable to health and an early frost is anticipated.

Report Confirmed.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—A special to the Piquette from Key West, Fla., says: Passengers by the steamer which arrived from Tampa, Fla., tonight confirm the reports heretofore received of the appearance and spread of the yellow fever at that place. The details show that the situation is grave and the number of cases is increasing. Up to the time of the departure of the steamer last night over thirty cases and four deaths were reported. A physician from St. Louis who was detained at Tampa for several days, says the wildest excitement prevails there, and that a panic has seized the inhabitants. Part of the fever appears to have supplanted reason, so one seemingly knowing what treatment to adopt, and everybody, even physicians, seek safety in flight.

Assigned.

TRIO, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Ogden, Collier & Co., bankers and brokers, made an assignment at 9:30 a. m. today.

STATE NEWS.

Judge Clark of St. John Grants an Injunction Restraining the Board of Commissioners From Calling an Election Asking the Removal

Of the County Seat of Stafford County From St. John to Stafford City.

Monthly Meeting of the Kansas Commandery at Leavenworth—Terrible Accident at Atchison.

A Well-Known Stockman at Topeka Makes a Hasty Exit For Canada—Convention at Lawrence.

KANSAS NEWS.

County Seat in Stafford County.

ST. JOHN, Kan., Oct. 7.—Yesterday Stafford City again presented a petition to the board of commissioners, in session here, asking that an election be called for the removal of the county seat from St. John to Stafford City. Judge Clark granted an injunction restraining the board from calling an election.

The Local Legion.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 7.—The regular monthly meeting of the Kansas Commandery Local Legion was held here this evening with quite a large attendance from abroad. Kan. City was represented by Colonel Gun and Captain Stevens. Seven new members were admitted: Colonel Thomas E. Burns and Captain C. E. Stueven of Winfield, Captain J. P. Northrup of Wyandotte, Lieutenant E. W. Casey of Fort Lewis, T. H. Silsbee of Peabody and Captain J. C. Luch and A. E. Peck of Fort Scott.

Capt. L. E. Campbell, treasurer, owing to orders directing him to take station at Denver, Col., tendered his resignation and was accepted, and on motion of ex-Gov. Anthony the thanks of the commandery were extended to the captain for the faithful and efficient performance of his duties as treasurer, and for the zeal and energy he had always shown to promote the welfare of the commandery.

A resolution was also passed directing the recorder to extend thanks to the adjutant generals of the states of Illinois, New York, Maine, Connecticut, Missouri, New Jersey, New Hampshire and Ohio for their kindness in presenting this commandery with the history of their state troops during the war.

At the conclusion of the regular business Gen. C. W. Blair delivered an address on "The Citizen Soldier." The members, accompanied by their ladies, then repaired to the dining hall, where a repast was served. There were about one hundred covers, and the Soldiers' home orchestra furnished the music.

Leavenworth Democracy.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 7.—The young Democrats of Leavenworth met in the council chamber this evening to organize for the purpose of visiting Kansas City next Tuesday on the occasion of the president's visit. J. H. Atwood was elected chairman and Thomas P. F